WRECKED BY STORM

Damage in Dallas County from Cyclonic Elements.

NINE PERSONS HURT.

Two of the Injured Are Seriously but Not Fatally Hurt—Property Destroyed Amounts to About Thirty Thousand.

Dallas, March 12.—Accompanied by a high wind, a murky, funnel-shaped cloud swept across the middle portion of this county from the southwest to the northeast Tuesday afternoon, leaving in its path nine bruised or maimed human beings and the debris of buildings which represents a loss of from $35,000 to $40,000.

The cyclone squarely struck the little town of De Soto, southwest from here, cleaving a way through the populous neighborhood lying a short distance south of Chestnut Hill on the Hutchins road, and after doing some damage in the vicinity of Orphans' Home, trace of it was lost.

The Injured:

Mrs. George Bray, South Dallas, seriously, struck on head, left shoulder and back by flying debris and timbers.

Andrew Budah, De Soto, very seriously, but may recover.

Four-year-old son of Rural Mail Carrier J. F. Johnson of De Soto, blown 40 feet and expected to die.

B. D. Boren, South Dallas, bruised.

Mrs. B. D. Boren, South Dallas, bruised.

George Bray Jr., South Dallas, severely bruised.

Infant son of Mrs. George Bray Sr., cut and bruised.

Servant girl employed at residence of Edward Yeargan, on Dallas and Orphans' Home road, caught beneath falling wardrobe, slightly injured.

Advices received here state good rains fell Tuesday all over Texas.

Schoolhouse Demolished.

Itasca, Tex., March 12.—The Rockwall school-house, situated four miles southeast of Itasca, was demolished by a cyclone late Tuesday. The teacher, his assistant and pupils were in the building at the time. Mr. Vanlandingham sustained severe bruises from falling timbers. Two children of White Turner sustained bruises. The course of the storm was in a north-easterly direction, and continuing in its career, it struck the village of Pluto, to the northeast, and blew three houses from their blocks.

Wind Storm at Denison

Denison, Tex., March 12.—Heavy wind Tuesday did considerable damage about town and in the country. Jack Burton, who lives about one and a half miles east of the city, had his barn blown away and he lost all his feed. The fence and stalls on the east side of the fair-grounds were blown down. There was a good downpour of rain.

Two Small Cyclones.

Rosebud, Tex., March 12.—Two small cyclones started in the western part of the little town Tuesday, one at the oil mill and the other west of the railroad, traveling parallel with each other. The one west of the railroad tore one negro house to pieces and blew two or three more off the blocks. The one starting at the oil mill made splinters of a little barn and passed right through the business center of town. Several glass doors were broken and it created the most intense excitement among those who were watching and saw its actions. No one was hurt. A good rain followed.

Houses Wrecked at Valley Mills.

Valley Mills, Tex., March 12.—A small cyclone struck this place late Tuesday. Several buildings in the town and in the country near here were badly wrecked. No one was killed or seriously hurt. Rain fell nearly all day.

Depot Struck by Lightning.

El Reno, O. T., March 12.—The Choctaw Oklahoma and Gulf Railway depot at Geary, near here, was struck by lightning Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock. The building caught fire and it and all the contents excepting the United States mail, were consumed. Six box cars containing merchandise were also destroyed.

Tool Governor Hogg's Watch.

New York, March 12.—Jose Diaz Alvarez, a young Mexican, has pleaded guilty to stealing the $300 gold watch of former Governor Hogg of Texas, on October 21, in the Waldorf-Astoria. Counsel for Alvarez said the defendant came from Mexico with some money and stayed at the Waldorf-Astoria. He was in the elevator one day with Governor Hogg and took his watch. Alvarez was sentenced to the Elmira reformatory.

Farmer Killed by Lightning.

Midlothian, Tex., March 12.—Ed King, a farmer living about three miles south of town, was killed by lightning during a thunder storm here Tuesday afternoon. Deceased was about 30 years old. A few minutes later the residence of Mr. Bentle was struck by a strong wind and demolished. Mrs. Bentle had an arm broken and sustained other serious injuries.

Die of His Wounds.

San Antonio, Tex., March 12.—Artie Lesterfield, a schoolboy, who was stabbed by a schoolmate at Cotulla and brought into this city for surgical treatment Tuesday, died after undergoing an operation at the San Antonio infirmary. His assailant is under arrest charged with murder.

STRIKE INCREASING.

Twenty Thousand Men Are Involved and Others to Lend Aid.

Boston, March 12.—The strike of 600 New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad freight handlers, which began last Saturday, has extended until now there are 20,000 men idle in this city. Of these 3,000 to 5,000 were employed by manufacturing concerns which have been compelled to shut down because of the difficulty of handling freight. Various lines of industry directly represented by the strike included freight handlers, team drivers, wool handlers, longshoremen and railway switchmen. If the threats of strike leaders are borne out the strike will extend to Building Trades unions and unions connected with foreign steamship traffic. The business men of the city find themselves staggered by the strike. Many conferences have been held and the influence of the civic federation has been invoked and the state board of arbitration has tried to find ground for an agreement between the parties at war, but apparently there is little hope of success.

The strike of coal teamsters presents one of the most alarming features of the trouble as it menaces not only many industries, but also the welfare of householders and especially people in poorer quarters of the city.

THE FARMERS' CONGRESS.

It Will Be Held in Macon, Ga., Early in October.

Chicago, March 12.—The next annual meeting of the Farmers' National congress will be held at Macon, Ga., on October 7, 8, 9 and 10, next.

Macon has raised a large sum of money for expenses and the entertainment of the congress. The Southwestern Passenger association has already made a rate of one fare for the round trip on account of the meeting and other passenger associations will make low rates.

The congress is composed of delegates appointed by governors of various states.

The president of the congress is Geo. L. Leanders, of Albany, N. Y., and the secretary is John M. Stahl, of Chicago.

Hopkins' Action Criticized.

Washington, March 12.—The house went into the committee of the whole and resumed consideration of the post-office appropriation bill this morning. Mr. Slims of Tennessee reviewed facts in connection with the enactment of a permanent census law and asserted the house had been grossly deceived by the action of conferees. It had been the intention of both the house and the senate, he said, to enact a provision which would cover all employees of census bureau into classified service and make them eligible for transfer but conferees had substituted a provision which defeated the object sought to be obtained by the two houses. He charged that Mr. Hopkins of Illinois who presented the conference report, had deceived the house. Mr. Hopkins' action, he declared, called for the strongest censure by the house, but as the gentleman was not present, he would not propose action along that line.

Invitation Extended to France.

Washington, March 12.—Soon after the senate convened this morning, Mr. Rawlins of Utah introduced a resolution which passed, directing the secretary of war to send to the senate the report of inspectors, carpenters, and any other information he may have in relation to transports between the United States and the Philippines, especially regarding free transportation of individuals.

Mr. Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, reported favorably a bill authorizing the president to extend to the government of France an invitation to join the government and people of the United States in the dedication of a monument of Count de Rochambeau to be unveiled in this city on May 26. Hoar offered an amendment which was adopted, including in the invitation the family of Marquis de Lafayette. As amended it passed. The senate then resumed consideration of the ship subsidy bill. Mr. McCumby of North Dakota speaking in support of the measure, favored the passage of the bill because he believed the results of its operation would be beneficial to the people of the entire country.

Superintendent Resigns.

Austin, March 12.—As a result of the investigation of the State Orphans' Home at Corsicana, by the legislative investigating committee, J. H. Bowman, superintendent of the institution, has resigned at the request of the board of trustees of the home, and Mrs. Bowman has resigned as matron. The governor has appointed J. H. Hayden of Corsicana a member of the board of trustees, to the superintendency to succeed Mr. Bowman, subject

WHY?

Because their way of doing business is to do it by wholesale. TWO big markets—15 men employed all the while catering to the wants of fastidious trade educated to eat good meats and no other. We have the facilities and intend to keep the trade by always selling the best at the lowest prices it can be bought for. We buy Wool, Hides, Pelts at highest market price.

Fancy prices make the things they eat better. This is a very erroneous and expensive notion. Fancy prices are often the result of high rents, clerk hire, etc. If your grocery bill is too large it will pay you to examine our stock of groceries and the low prices we make on them. They are fresh, pure and wholesome. They please our old customers and if you will let us send a trial order we will please you.

J. P. ALTGELD IS DEAD

Stricken at Joliet After a Speech for the Boers.

LIVED A FEW HOURS

Ex-Governor Altgeld Was One of the Best Known Men in the Northwest—He Held Various Positions of Trust.

Joliet, Ill., March 12.—Ex. Gov. John P. Altgeld died in the Munroe hotel at 7:00 o'clock this morning. He had been unconscious since midnight. Altgeld was principal speaker at pro-Boer massmeeting Tuesday night in the Joliet theater. Just after the close of his speech sudden dizziness seized him and he was assisted from the stage. The meeting proceeded, the audience not realizing what had happened. Mr. Altgeld was taken to the door of the theater, where several vomiting spells seized him. This continued for nearly an hour, and was so pronounced that he could not be removed to the hotel. Physicians were hastily summoned and Mr. Altgeld was carried to a hotel across the street. He retained consciousness and urged newspaper men to keep the affair quiet for fear of alarming his wife. Shortly before midnight he became unconscious. He remained in this condition until death.

The cause of death is given as cerebral hemorrhage, there having been apoplectic seizure of the brain. Vomiting at first was taken to indicate ptomaine poisoning, but it was determined this was due to different manifestations of brain trouble.

The physicians desire to hold a post mortem, if relatives will agree.

In his speech Mr. Altgeld made a forcible plea for the Boer women and children in the concentration camps in South Africa. In his introductory remarks he declared that all friends of humanity owed a debt of gratitude to Governor Yates for issuing a proclamation soliciting funds for the Boer women and children in the concentration camps which the British are maintaining in South Africa.

The speaker said that the people of America had raised a large sum of money with which to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children, but were unable to send it to them because Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador at Washington, objected to it. He further charged that Lord Pauncefote had for years meddled in American affairs. There were eighteen counts and specific charges in Governor Altgeld's indictment. He said in substance:

"Just before the beginning of the Spanish war Lord Pauncefote, representing the aristocracy, meddled in our affairs and tried to unite the governments of Europe in making a joint protest against America's interference in behalf of Cuba. But when the American people asserted themselves and our government was compelled to go to the rescue of Cuba, England issued a strong neutrality proclamation forbidding all of her subjects everywhere from furnishing us any aid or doing anything that would be a violation of the strictest neutrality."

No Postmortem Will Be Allowed.

Joliet, Ill., March 12.—No post mortem will be held on the body of John P. Altgeld. The family does not wish it, being content with the statement of the physicians that he died from cerebral hemorrhage. The remains were embalmed and sent to Chicago.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not nourish a particular part of the body but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. City Secretary.

HE IS AFTER MR. HAY

Mr. Burleson Arraigns Him for His Pro-British Sentiment.

HITT DEFENDS HIM.

The Texas Congressman Charges the Secretary Turning a Deaf Ear to an Appeal for Distribution of Funds for Boers.

Washington, March 12.—The feature in the house Tuesday, was a speech by Mr. Burleson of Texas attacking Secretary Hay for declining to request the British authorities to furnish passports to go through the British lines to Rev. Hiram W. Thomas and wife, who desire to go to South Africa to distribute Boer relief funds collected in Illinois.

Mr. Hitt of Illinois, chairman of the foreign affairs committee made a spirited reply to Mr. Burleson, charging the Texas member with attempting to prejudice the case before the evidence was in. Mr. Hitt pointed out that relief funds could be distributed through the Red Cross and the American consuls and declare that it was contrary to international law and usage to allow those in sympathy with the enemy to go through the lines in time of war.

Mr. Burleson then called attention to the resolutions introduced by him on the secretary of state for information as to whether he had declined to request the British ambassador to furnish passports for Rev. Hiram W. Thomas and wife of Chicago, who were sent to distribute funds collected in Illinois for the relief of non-combatant prisoners in South Africa.

Mr. Burleson sent to the clerk's and had read a letter from John A. Knight, who came to Washington to secure the passports. Mr. Knight stated the funds were collected in response to Gov. Yates' appeal. He had gone to Secretary Hay, the latter said, with a letter from Senator Culom and the secretary of state according to the letter, had declined to make the request of Lord Hauncote on the ground that such a request would be considered meddlesome and a remission of neutrality and against the views of President Roosevelt.

If the facts stated in this letter were true, said Mr. Burleson, then the state department was so "saturated with pro-British sentiment that it no longer responded to the common dictates of humanity when made in behalf of Boer women and children."

Mr. Burleson said that under date of March 4 another appeal had gone from Mr. Knight to Secretary Hay without eliciting a response.

Mr. Burleson said his purpose in having the letter read was to fasten the attention of the American people on the course of the state department.

Mr. Hitt replied to Mr. Burleson with some display of heat. He said it was with some surprise that he heard the gentleman from Texas bring forward a resolution which already had been referred to a committee of which he (Mr. Burleson) was a member and which committee to meet on a day fixed by the motion of Mr. Burleson himself. He declared it was an effort to prejudice the case before the evidence was in. International law must be observed, he said. The Red Cross was organized for the purpose of carrying relief. Funds could be distributed though it or through our consuls, but not through those in sympathy with the enemy.

"But why should not the secretary of state use his good offices to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children confined in concentration camps?" asked Mr. Burleson.

Mr. Hitt replied that according to Mr. Knight's letter the secretary had offered to help the Rev. Thomas in every way in his way, but he manifestly could not do a ridiculous thing. The rules of international law on the question were well established. Jefferson Davis would not have allowed northern sympathizers to perambulate through southern camps to distribute relief. The secretary of state could not make a demand on the face of it which was contrary to all precedents.

Mallory Against the Bill.

Washington, March 12.—For several hours Tuesday the senate had the ship subsidy bill under consideration. Mr. Mallory of Florida, made an extended speech in opposition to the bill. He held there was no good reason for the bill's enactment into law, saying he did not believe it would accomplish the object claimed for by its promoters. His opposition was based chiefly on the ground that it would extend the favor of the United States treasury to private individuals and corporations without just return for the expenditure.

Another Fire at Chickasha.

Chickasha, I. T., March 12.—The third fire in five days burned Murphy's one-story brick. Loss $3000, insurance $1000. It was occupied by Overstreet & Sons, hardware. Their loss is about $10,000, with insurance of $6000. It is supposed to have been caused by lightning.

The Treaty Ratified.

Copenhagen, March 12.—The folk meeting in committee of the whole and in executive session, voted by a large majority in favor of the ratification of the treaty providing for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States.

Wiley Jones Dead.

PRINCE AND PRESIDENT.

Exchange Farewell Greetings on Departure of the Prince.

Washington, March 12.—The following exchanges took place between Prince Henry of Prussia, who sailed for Europe, and President Roosevelt: "Hoboken, N. J., March 11.—To the President of the United States: On this day of my departure I beg to thank you personally, as well as the nation whose guest I have been, for all the kindness, consolation and good feeling I have met with during my visit to your interesting country. I hope that my visit may have increased the feeling of friendship between the country I represent and the United States. Bidding you farewell, let me wish you every possible success. Pray remember me to Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Roosevelt, who so charmingly and with so much pluck accomplished her task when launching his majesty's yacht Meteor. Once more, most hearty thanks. May we meet again."

"HEINRICH,

"Prince von Preussen."

"White House, Washington, D. C., March 11.—Henry, Prince of Prussia, Steamer Deutschland, Hamburg-American Dock, Hoboken, N. J.: Not only have I enjoyed your visit personally, but on behalf of my countrymen I wish to express to you the pleasure it has been to see you and the real good I think your visit has done in promoting a friendship between Germany and the United States. It is my most earnest wish that this feeling will strengthen steadily. Mrs. Roosevelt sends her regards, and so would Miss Alice Roosevelt if she were not absent. Pray present my heartiest greeting to his majesty, the German emperor. Again I thank you for your visit and wish you all good luck wherever you may be."

STOCKMEN'S CONVENTION.

Delegates Present from All Over Texas and Visitors from Other States.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 12.—Under most happy auspices the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association is being held.

There are representative men from all sections of not only Texas, but from the Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and the great northwestern ranges. Managers of stockyards at the central live-stock markets, railway live-stock agents and packinghouse representatives are also numerous. In fact, the city is in possession of the cowmen. The hotel lobbies and streets are crowded with men wearing on their breasts badges so numerous they represent the medals and decorations worn by military heroes.

The convention proper was in session less than an hour. The proceedings were of a purely routine character, and adjournment was taken until this morning, in order that members of the association might have time to digest the reports which were read, and have been placed in their hands in printed form.

Today the election of officers takes place, and indications are that the present officers will be reelected, as no other names have so far been mentioned in this connection.

PHILIPPINE FRIARS.

It Is Believed the Pope Has Done Much to Settle Affairs.

Rome, March 12.—When the pope received Mgr. Sbaratti Monday before the departure of the latter for the Philippines, he urged him to make every effort to work with and conciliate the Americans, from whom, including President Roosevelt himself, the papal government had received such evident marks of friendliness.

The words of the pontiff are the more important since he has recently received many warm petitions from the friars and their protectors urging him to maintain their moral and material supremacy in the Philippines, and recommending him especially to prevent their removal.

Several cardinals consider that if

Washington insist the friars must ultimately be gradually withdrawn.

Would Indict Bird Killers.

Greenville, Tex., March 12.—At a meeting of the Hunt County Farmers' Institute, held here, the following resolution was adopted:

"We, the farmers of Hunt county, in mass meeting assembled, respectfully request our district judge to specially direct the attention of the grand jury to the investigation of the killing of birds in violation of the law, and also request that such parties be indicted and prosecuted for such violations."

The request is made in view of the fact that the birds help to destroy the soil worms and other crop pests.

New Mill for Shreveport.

McKinney, Tex., March 12.—Jesse Shain, J. S. Heard and J. P. Burress, purchasing committee for the Sun Milling company of Shreveport, closed a contract Tuesday night with an Indianapolis firm to erect a $100,000 mill plant at Shreveport. The stockholders of this mill are composed of the same gentlemen that own the Century Milling plant at Dallas.

Safe Robbed in Indiana.

Poseyville, Ind., March 12.—The safe in the bank of Bozeman & Waters was blown here by robbers who secured about $3500 in money. A posse of citizens are in pursuit.

Indian Suicide.

Ada, I. T., March 12.—Wisdom Porter, a full-blood Indian, living two miles east of this city, committed suicide by shooting out his brains with a pistol.

TRIAL OF PATRICK.

Two Physicians Testify as to the Chloroform of Mr. Rice.

New York, March 12.—Professor Ewing of the medical department of Cornell university, who testified Monday for the defense in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, who is accused of the murder of William Marsh Rice, was on the stand again Tuesday. His cross-examination was continued by Assistant District Attorney Osborne, who put a long hypothetical question that included all the history of Mr. Rice's illness as related by Jones and Dr. Walker Curry, and asked Dr. Ewing if he could find anything between 11 o'clock on the morning of Sunday and 8 o'clock in the evening when Rice died, which could have caused death.

Mr. Moore objected on the ground that the question did not contain a fair statement of the testimony in the case.

Recorder Goff overruled the objection.

Dr. Ewing said the question was so full of contradictions that he could not answer it.

Asked to detail the contradictions, he said Mr. Rice's lungs could not have been normal when the autopsy showed an area of congestion that indicated pneumonia; that he could not have been thoroughly examined by a competent physician if the person making the examination found no indication of lung trouble, and attributed the difficulty in breathing to mental worry.

Mr. Osborne amended the question, and Dr. Ewing said there was no need for anything to intervene to cause death beyond the symptoms described and disregarded by Dr. Curry.

Dr. Ewing said that the taking into consideration the cancerous, or patch in Rice's lung, shown by the autopsy, together with the congestion and conditions found, he thought these would be sufficient to account for the death of the patient, 80 years old. The pneumonia might have killed Rice in two hours, or it might have taken longer.

On redirect examination, Dr. Ewing said he thought pneumonia edema and the congestion of the lungs were present in Rice's case.

Dr. John Gardner was the next witness. He said he was the author of a work on chloroform. Mr. Moore described the administration of chloroform as Jones said he gave it to Rice, and asked Dr. Gardner if it could be done that way.

"In my opinion," Dr. Gardner replied, "it could not. The shock of placing the chloroform in a cone, as described, over the face of the patient—chloroform, to be effective, must be administered slowly."

Dr. Gardner said a chloroform-saturated rag would not burn, as Jones described the burning of the towel he took from Mr. Rice's face. He said he made a number of experiments, and based his reply upon the result of these experiments.

Recorder Goff would not let him describe those experiments.

Mr. Moore put the same hypothetical question as to the cause of death that he had put to Dr. Ewing, and Dr. Gardner replied:

"I answer your question as a physician, not as a pathologist. From the picture you have drawn, I form the opinion that the patient died of edema, or dropsy of the lungs, and that a remote cause of death was nephritis."

"Did the patient die of chloroform poisoning?"

"There is no evidence of chloroform poisoning in anything you have said."

At this juncture court adjourned.

HE IS AFTER MR. HAY

Mr. Burleson Arraigns Him for His Pro-British Sentiment.

HITT DEFENDS HIM.

The Texas Congressman Charges the Secretary Turning a Deaf Ear to an Appeal for Distribution of Funds for Boers.

Washington, March 12.—The feature in the house Tuesday, was a speech by Mr. Burleson of Texas attacking Secretary Hay for declining to request the British authorities to furnish passports to go through the British lines to Rev. Hiram W. Thomas and wife, who desire to go to South Africa to distribute Boer relief funds collected in Illinois.

Mr. Hitt of Illinois, chairman of the foreign affairs committee made a spirited reply to Mr. Burleson, charging the Texas member with attempting to prejudice the case before the evidence was in. Mr. Hitt pointed out that relief funds could be distributed through the Red Cross and the American consuls and declare that it was contrary to international law and usage to allow those in sympathy with the enemy to go through the lines in time of war.

Mr. Burleson then called attention to the resolutions introduced by him calling on the secretary of state for information as to whether he had declined to request the British ambassador to furnish passports for Rev. Hiram W. Thomas and wife of Chicago, who were sent to distribute funds collected in Illinois for the relief of non-combatant prisoners in South Africa.

Mr. Burleson sent to the clerk's and had read letter from John A. Knight, who came to Washington to secure the passports. Mr. Knight stated the funds were collected in response to Gov. Yates' appeal. He had gone to Secretary Hay, the latter said, with a letter from Senator Cullom and the secretary of state according to the letter, had declined to make the request of Lord Pauncefote on the ground that such a request would be considered meddlesome and a remission of neutrality and against the views of President Roosevelt.

If the facts stated in this letter were true, said Mr. Burleson, then the state department was so "saturated with pro-British sentiment that it no longer responded to the common dictates of humanity when made in behalf of Boer women and children."

Mr. Burleson said that under date of March 4 another appeal had gone from Mr. Knight to Secretary Hay without eliciting a response.

Mr. Burleson said his purpose in having the letters read was to fasten the attention of the American people on the course of the state department.

Mr. Hitt replied to Mr. Burleson with some display of heat. He said it was with some surprise that he heard the gentleman from Texas bring forward a resolution which already had been referred to a committee of which he (Mr. Burleson) was a member and which committee to meet on a day fixed by the motion of Mr. Burleson himself. He declared it was an effort to prejudice the case before the evidence was in. International law must be observed, he said. The Red Cross was organized for the purpose of carrying relief. Funds could be distributed though it or through our consuls, but not through those in sympathy with the enemy.

"But why should not the secretary of state use his good offices to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children confined in concentration camps?" asked Mr. Burleson.

Mr. Hitt replied that according to Mr. Knight's letter the secretary had offered to help the Rev. Thomas in every way in his way, but he manifestly could not do a ridiculous thing. The rules of international law on the question were well established. Jefferson Davis would not have allowed northern sympathizers to perambulate through southern camps to distribute relief. The secretary of state could not make a demand on the face of which it was contrary to all precedents.

Mallory Against the Bill.
Washington, March 12.—For several hours Tuesday the senate had the ship subsidy bill under consideration. Mr. Mallory of Florida, made an extended speech in opposition to the bill. He held there was no good reason for the bill's enactment into law, saying he did not believe it would accomplish the object claimed for by its promoters. His opposition was based chiefly on the ground that it would extend the favor of the United States treasury to private individuals and corporations without just return for the expenditure.

Exchange Farewell Greetings on Departure of the Prince.

"Hoboken, N. J., March 11.—To the President of the United States: On this day of my departure I beg to thank you personally, as well as the nation whose guest I have been, for all the kindness, consolation and good feeling I have met with during my visit to your interesting country. I hope that my visit may have increased the feeling of friendship between the country I represent and the United States. Bid you farewell, let me wish you every possible success. Pray remember me to Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Roosevelt, who so charmingly and with so much pluck accomplished her task when launching his majesty's yacht Meteor. Once more, most hearty thanks. May we meet again.

It is my most earnest wish that this feeling will strengthen steadily. Mrs. Roosevelt sends her regards, and so would Miss Alice Roosevelt if she were not absent. Pray present my heartiest greeting to his majesty, the German emperor. Again I thank you for your visit and wish you all good luck wherever you may be."

STOCKMEN'S CONVENTION.

Delegates Present from All Over Texas and Visitors from Other States.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 12.—Under most happy auspices the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association is being held.

There are representative men from all sections of not only Texas, but from the Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and the great northwestern ranges. Managers of stockyards at the central livestock markets, railway livestock agents and packinghouse representatives are also numerous. In fact, the city is in possession of the cowmen. The hotel lobbies and streets are crowded with men wearing on their breasts badges so numerous they represent the medals and decorations worn by military heroes.

The convention proper was in session less than an hour. The proceedings were of a purely routine character, and an adjournment was taken until this morning, in order that members of the association might have time to digest the reports which were read, and have been placed in their hands in printed form.

Today the election of officers takes place, and indications are that the present officers will be reelected, as no other names have so far been mentioned in this connection.

PHILIPPINE FRIARS.

It Is Believed the Pope Has Done Much to Settle Affairs.

Rome, March 12.—When the pope received Mgr. Sbaratti Monday before the departure of the latter for the Philippines, he urged him to make every effort to work with and conciliate the Americans, from whom, including President Roosevelt himself, the papal government had received such evident marks of friendliness.

The words of the pontiff are the more important since he has recently received many warm petitions from the friars and their protectors urging him to maintain their moral and material supremacy in the Philippines, and recommending him especially to prevent their removal.

Several cardinals consider that if Washington insist the friars must ultimately be gradually withdrawn.

Wool Indian Bird Killers.

The request is made in view of the fact that the birds help to destroy the boll worms and other crop pests.

TRIAL OF PATRICK.

Two Physicians Testify as to the Chloro-forming of Mr. Rice.

New York, March 12.—Professor Ewing of the medical department of Cornell university, who testified Monday for the defense in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, who is accused of the murder of William Marsh Rice, was on the stand again Tuesday. His cross-examination was continued by Assistant District Attorney Osborne, who put a long hypothetical question that included all the history of Mr. Rice's illness as related by Jones and Dr. Walker Curry, and asked Dr. Ewing if he could find anything between 11 o'clock on the morning of Sunday and 8 o'clock in the evening when Rice died, which could have caused death.

Mr. Moore objected on the ground that the question did not contain a fair statement of the testimony in the case.

Recorder Goff overruled the objection.

Dr. Ewing said the question was so full of contradictions that he could not answer it.

Asked to detail the contradictions, he said Mr. Rice's lungs could not have been normal when the autopsy showed an area of congestion that indicated pneumonia; that he could not have been thoroughly examined by a competent physician if the person making the examination found no indication of lung trouble, and attributed the difficulty in breathing to mental worry.

Mr. Osborne amended the question, and Dr. Ewing said there was no need for anything to intervene to cause death beyond the symptoms described and disregarded by Dr. Curry.

Dr. Ewing said that the taking into consideration the canceration, or patch in Rice's lung, shown by the autopsy, together with the congestion and conditions found, he thought these would be sufficient to account for the death of the patient, 80 years old. The pneumonia might have killed Rice in two hours, or it might have taken longer.

On redirect examination, Dr. Ewing said he thought pneumonia edema and the congestion of the lungs were present in Rice's case.

Dr. John Gardner was the next witness. He said he was the author of a work on chloroform. Mr. Moore described the administration of chloroform as Jones said he gave it to Rice, and asked Dr. Gardner if it could be done that way.

"In my opinion," Dr. Gardner replied, "it could not. The shock of placing the chloroform in a cone, as described, over the face of the patient—chloroform, to be effective, must be administered slowly."

Dr. Gardner said a chloroform-saturated rag would not burn, as Jones described the burning of the towel he took from Mr. Rice's face. He said he made a number of experiments, and based his reply upon the result of these experiments.

Recorder Goff would not let him describe those experiments.

Mr. Moore put the same hypothetical question as to the cause of death that he had put to Dr. Ewing, and Dr. Gardner replied:

"I answer your question as a physician, not as a pathologist. From the picture you have drawn, I form the opinion that the patient died of edema, or dropsy of the lungs, and that a remote cause of death was nephritis."

"Did the patient die of chloroform poisoning?"

"There is no evidence of chloroform poisoning in anything you have said."

At this juncture court adjourned.

MINOR LAW ONLY UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Springfield, Ill., March 12.—According to the opinion of Attorney General Hamlin and other officials, the decision handed down by the United States supreme court declaring the anti-trust law of this state unconstitutional, is not nearly so significant as some persons believe. The law passed upon by that tribunal is not, as commonly supposed, the one providing for an annual report by the corporations of the state to the secretary of state, with an accompanying affidavit to the effect that the corporation has not entered into any sort of trust. The law passed upon is one making the act of entering into any such combination a misdemeanor and providing a penalty for such action.
